

Call for candidates for a full-time post-doctoral researcher for the project:
Greek aristocratic culture (8th-5th centuries B.C.): the life-styles and the systems of values,
run by Dr Habil. Marek Węcowski

Project-related remuneration period:

24 months

Total salary cost on grant (PLN)

140 000 (or ca. 5800 PLN per month) (gross)

Responsibilities / duties

- Position: full-time position, post-doc type;
- Scope of work within individual project tasks;
- Studying some of the crucial aspects of the material culture of the archaic and early classical Greek aristocracy, such as élite burial habits and grave goods (in their relationship to non-élite burial habits of a given community) and élite votive practices;
- Studying the attitudes and forms of activity of archaic Greek aristocracy as regards the circulation of élite goods and the forms of economic activity of the archaic and early classical aristocracy;
- Writing articles and chapters on these issues, representing project at workshops and conferences;
- Methodological and technical support of the team as regards the archaeological sources involved.

I. Requirements

Essential:

- Ph.D. in archaeology;
- Education and/or publication record in Greek archaeology;
- Excellent knowledge of English;
- An effective working knowledge of at least one of the following languages: French, Italian, German, or Spanish;
- Ability and willingness to work as part of a team, offer professional and methodological support to the team, share insights and findings and write to a deadline.

Desirable:

- Excellent communication skills, including the ability to write for publication (to a deadline), present research proposals and results, and to represent the University of Warsaw and the project at scholarly meetings;
- Good knowledge of Greek and Latin.

II. How to apply

Closing date: 30 June 2017.

The preselected candidates will be interviewed on 10-14 July 2017 (possibly, although not necessarily, via Skype).

The final choice of the candidates will comply with the rules of the National Science Center (NCN).

III. Application dossier:

1. A cover letter addressed to the Rector of the University of Warsaw, and written declaration allowing the publication at the Institute of History webpage of documents mentioned under n. 3 (below).
2. Copy of the Ph.D. diploma
3. CV containing description of the academic curriculum, research interests and achievements (publication record, conference papers, participation in research projects etc.) and (preferably) languages certificates;
4. Motivation letter
5. Copy of the doctoral thesis and copies of selected scholarly texts (published or forthcoming)
6. A letter of recommendation to be sent directly to: m.wecowski@uw.edu.pl
7. An administrative questionnaire ("kwestionariusz osobowy") to be found at the University of Warsaw Website

The dossier shall be sent as hard copy or e-mail attachment to the Institute of History,
University of Warsaw
Krakowskie Przedmieście 26/28
00-927 Warszawa, Poland
e-mail: Dr Marek Węcowski: m.wecowski@uw.edu.pl

For further information please contact Dr Marek Węcowski: m.wecowski@uw.edu.pl